Lodgement Guide

NOTE: For an explanation of common terms used in the First Home Owner Lodgement Guide and the Application Form, refer to Terms Used on page 4. Do not submit this Guide with your application.

TO APPLY

Applicants must:

- fully complete the Application Form and lodge it with all relevant supporting documentation.
- be at least 18 years of age or applying with a person who is.
- be a natural person (i.e. not a company) who does or will on completion of the eligible transaction, own the property in their own right and not as a trustee.
- be an Australian citizen or permanent resident or be applying with a person who is.
- be buying or building a home for which the contract was signed on or after 1 July 2000 or building a home as an owner builder where building commenced on or after 1 July 2000.
- ensure each person (excluding the Chief Executive Officer (Housing)) holding a relevant interest in the property is an applicant.
- occupy the home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of at least six (6) months commencing within twelve (12) months of completion of the eligible transaction.
- lodge an application within twelve (12) months of completion of the eligible transaction.

Applicants and their spouse (includes a de facto partner and same sex partner) must not have:

- previously received a First Home Owner Grant in any State or Territory of Australia;
- held a relevant interest in residential property anywhere in Australia prior to 1 July 2000; or
- held a relevant interest in residential property that they occupied anywhere in Australia on or after 1 July 2000.

* NOTE: For further information on the meaning of a 'de facto relationship' and factors considered in determining the existence of one, refer to Commissioner's Guideline CG-HI-004 De facto Relationships which can be downloaded from the TRM website.

WHERE TO LODGE YOUR APPLICATION

You can lodge your application with:

- the approved agent who is providing your finance. A list of approved agents can be found at www.revenue.nt.gov.au or by telephoning Territory Revenue Management on 1300 305 353. If you require the funds for settlement, you must lodge your application with your approved agent; or
- Territory Revenue Management (refer to Contact Details on page 3).

WHAT SUPPORTING EVIDENCE IS REQUIRED?

1. Proof of identify

The following must be submitted for every applicant and their spouse:

- A certified copy of their birth certificate (or extract) or passport; and
- If all applicants were born outside Australia one applicant must provide a certified copy of documentary evidence of permanent residency or citizenship of Australia.

Additional supporting evidence is required if you are:

- Divorced – a certified copy of your divorce certificate(s).
- Separated but legally married – a statutory declaration providing the name of your spouse, the date you were married, the date you separated, the future intentions regarding cohabitation arrangements with your spouse and your spouse's current address (if known). You should also provide a copy of any documentation confirming separation such as a property settlement or maintenance agreement (if applicable).

2. Transaction type

Depending on the circumstances of your application, the following is required:

A. Contract to purchase a new or established home or a home 'off-the-plan' home

A copy of the contract for sale.

Where there is no contract for sale or the transaction is between family members or related parties, you will also need to supply evidence that the consideration has been paid*.

B. Contract to build a home

A copy of the:

- building contract dated and signed by all parties; and
- builder's progress payment invoices (not deposit) totalling at least the amount of the Grant.

C. Owner Builders

A copy (where applicable) of:

- the owner builder permit;
- the inspection reports of the building certifier;
- the certificate of occupancy; and
- documentary proof of building costs totalling an amount equal to or greater than the Grant, excluding your own labour costs*.

* Not required if the application is lodged with an approved agent.

NOTE: Do not post original documents to TRM, please provide copies (or certified copies where applicable) only.

WHEN WILL THE GRANT BE PAID?

Applications lodged with an approved agent

Where you:

- are purchasing an established home, new home or 'off-the-plan' home, the Grant can be made available at settlement;
- have a contract to build with a builder, the Grant will be paid when the foundations are laid and your builder has issued progress payment invoices (not the deposit) totalling at least the amount of the Grant; or
- are an owner builder, the Grant will be paid when the certificate of occupancy has been issued.

Applications lodged with TRM

Where you:

- are purchasing an established home, new home or a home 'off-the-plan', the Grant will be paid when your name is registered on the Certificate of Title. For terms contracts it will be paid after you have been in possession of the property and made payments of not less than the amount of the Grant;
- have a contract to build with a builder, the Grant will be paid when the foundations are laid and your builder has issued progress payment invoices (not the deposit) totalling at least the amount of the Grant; or
- are building a home as an owner builder, the Grant will be paid when the home has been completed and the certificate of occupancy has been issued.

WHEN DO I HAVE TO MOVE IN AND FOR HOW LONG?

Each* applicant must live in the home as their principal place of residence for at least six (6)* continuous months commencing within twelve (12)* months of completion of the eligible transaction ('the residency requirements').

* Refer to the Commissioner's discretions on page 3.

WHAT IF I AM INELIGIBLE FOR THE GRANT?

An applicant is required to notify the Commissioner of Taxes and repay the Grant within 30 days:

- of not satisfying the residency requirements; or
- of receiving the Grant if they were ineligible (ie. the applicant or their spouse previously held a relevant interest in residential property in Australia).

Failure to notify the Commissioner and repay the Grant is an offence under the First Home Owner Grant Act for which a penalty of up to $5500 is provided. Furthermore, the Commissioner may recover the amount of the Grant together with a penalty equal to that amount.

DOES THE COMMISSIONER HAVE ANY DISCRETIONS?

In special circumstances the Commissioner may:

- approve the payment of the Grant if all applicants are less than 18 years of age.
- if there are two or more applicants, exempt one of the applicants from the requirement to occupy.
- approve an occupation period of less than six (6) months (but cannot waive the requirement to occupy).
- approve a period of greater than twelve (12) months to take occupancy.

To obtain any of the above approvals, you must make a written submission to the Commissioner fully explaining your special circumstances.

ARE INVESTIGATIONS CONDUCTED TO VERIFY AN APPLICANTS ELIGIBILITY?

TRM conducts investigations to verify that occupancy of the home has occurred within the required time frames and that applicants meet the eligibility criteria, such as prior ownership of property. In addition, investigations are carried out in other jurisdictions through reciprocal arrangements with the States and the Australian Capital Territory.

OTHER BENEFITS FOR A FIRST HOME OWNER

The Northern Territory Government provides assistance in the form of a stamp duty First Home Owner Concession (FHOC). The FHOC is an amount of up to $8 015.60 on the stamp duty payable on the acquisition of an existing home or land on which a home is to be built. For further details visit our web site at www.revenue.nt.gov.au or phone TRM on any of the numbers below.

TERMS USED

Approved agent	An organisation approved by TRM (including a financial institution) that processes applications for the First Home Owner Grant.
Certified Copy	A copy of an original document that has been sighted by an acceptable person and noted on the copy that it is a true copy of the original. An acceptable person includes: Commissioner of Oaths, Member of Parliament, Legal Practitioner, a person holding office under the Supreme Court Act or Justice Act , Conveyancing Agent or Real Estate Agent licensed under the Agents Licensing Act , Police Officer, Bank Employee, Justice of the Peace (JP) or a Public Servant.
Commissioner	Commissioner of Taxes, Northern Territory.
Completion of the eligible transaction	Where a home is being purchased it is when the applicant is registered on the certificate of title (usually referred to as settlement). Where a home is being built it is when the home is ready for occupation as a place of residence (usually upon issue of the certificate of occupancy).
Consideration	Purchase price or cost of construction of the home.
Contract to build	A comprehensive building contract where a builder agrees to build a home, from the time the building starts to when it is finished and is ready for occupation.
Eligible transaction	Contract for the purchase of a home, contract to build a home or the construction of a home as an owner builder.
Established home	A home that has been previously occupied and is lawfully fit for occupation.
Home	Is a building, affixed to land, that may be lawfully used as a place of residence and is, in the Commissioner's opinion, suitable for use as a place of residence.
New home	A home that has not previously been lived in or sold as a place of residence.
Notifiable event	When any part of the eligibility criteria is not met, the applicant(s) must notify and repay the Grant to the Commissioner within 30 days of the event. An example would be where an applicant does not occupy the home as their principal place of residence for a continuous period of six (6) months commencing within twelve (12) months of completion of the eligible transaction.
Off-the-plan	A contract for the purchase of the home on a proposed lot in an unregistered plan of a subdivision of land.
Owner	A person who has a relevant interest in land on which a home is built.
Owner builder	An owner of land who builds a home or has a home built, on the land without entering into a contract to build.
Permanent resident	A person who holds a permanent visa (under Section 30 of the Migration Act 1958) or a New Zealand citizen who is the holder of a special category visa (under Section 32 of the Migration Act 1958).
Principal place of residence	The home you primarily reside in. This home must be occupied by each applicant for a continuous period of six (6) months commencing within twelve (12) months of the completion of the eligible transaction.
Relevant interest	Refers to the means by which a person holds their interest in land on which the home is built. This commonly is an estate in fee simple. Other forms of interest are defined in the First Home Owner Grant Act 2000 .
Residential property	Land in Australia on which there is a home which is lawfully occupied or suitable for occupation as a place of residence. These include houses, townhouses, units, flats, duplexes and fixed transportables.
Spouse	The person to whom the applicant is legally married to, or is in a de facto relationship with, as defined in the De Facto Relationships Act . Spouse includes a de facto partner, including same sex partners. For further information on the meaning of a 'de facto' relationship and factors considered in determining the existence of one, refer to Commissioner's Guideline CG-HI-004 De facto Relationships which can be downloaded from the TRM website. NOTE: There is no minimum period of cohabitation which defines a de facto relationship under the De Facto Relationships Act .
Terms contract	A contract for the sale of land where the purchaser has to make two (2) or more payments (excluding the deposit) to the vendor after the contract is signed by all parties. The applicant as the purchaser must be in possession under the contract and can not be registered on title until the final payment is made to the vendor.
TRM	Territory Revenue Management.
